

DIOCESE OF NEW ENGLAND

55th DIOCESAN ASSEMBLY

Hartford, CT

OCTOBER 26-27, 2018

To the Reverend Clergy, Parish Councils and Faithful of the Diocese of New England,

The 55th New England Diocesan Assembly will convene on October 26-27, 2018, hosted by All Saints Church, Hartford, CT. Registration begins on Friday morning at 8:30 A.M. Clergy and Lay delegates are reminded that this is a two-day assembly, and all are expected to be present for the entire assembly.

Details regarding overnight accommodations, registration for the assembly - including delegate accreditation forms and travel details are included in this attachment. In the second attachment please find the draft minutes from the 54th Diocesan Assembly. Another email, early in September, will contain the proposed budget for 2019. All parishes are receiving this packet in electronic form only.

Please note that the deadline for the rooms, the forms and banquet registration are October 7th. Please make every attempt to attend the banquet.

As indicated in the Statute of the Orthodox Church in America, the parish lay representative(s) are to be chosen by election — either at a general parish meeting or a parish council meeting, according to local practice. The number of lay representatives corresponds to the number of assigned (not attached) clergy — priests and deacons — in the parish. Vacant parishes may elect and send one (1) lay representative. Accordingly, lay representation to the 55th Assembly is on the enclosed sheet.

In order to send voting delegates to the Diocesan Assembly, parishes must be current with their Diocesan and OCA Fair Share that is at least through the fiscal year ending on August 31, 2018. Please note that lay delegates whose parish fair share is not current will be seated as observers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Alexia Tassmer

August 2018

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is with great joy that I extend this invitation to you to participate in the 55th Annual Assembly of the Diocese of New England. For many it is a regular occasion and for others it will be a first.

I know that Father James Parnell and the parishioners of All Saints Church are anxiously awaiting and are looking forward to our arrival.

How joyous it is when the whole church gathers, Bishop, Clergy and Laity not only to determine and define our direction and activities for the coming year as “all things must be done in order.” Certainly, the business of operating is important but to join together in the celebration of the Eucharistic Liturgy is our greatest joy.

It is in this light that I once again think of our gathering together in the Connecticut Deanery during this beautiful time of year on Friday and Saturday October 26-27 in 2018 for this 55th Annual Assembly as the “Synaxis of the Diocese of New England.” Defined by the dictionary “Synaxis” means the gathering of the faithful, especially for the celebration of the Lord’s Supper. I know all of you will want to participate in the Eucharistic Liturgy on Saturday Morning.

Included with this package you will find all pertinent information regarding accommodations, schedules, etc. I know that none of us will want to miss out on fully participating in the life of our church.

With my Love, Blessings and Prayers,

Archbishop of Boston, New England and the Albanian Archdiocese

August 22, 2018: Afterfeast of the Dormition of the Theotokos; Matyr Agathonicus & his companions

Your Eminence, Reverend Fathers, Brothers and Sisters of the Diocese of New England

It is our great joy to welcome you to All Saints Orthodox Church in Hartford, Connecticut!

On Friday, October 26th, The Archdiocesan Center at Saint Thomas Seminary, 467 Bloomfield Avenue, Bloomfield, Connecticut will be the location for our meetings, Vespers, and Banquet. For those who require overnight accommodations, dormitory-style guest rooms will be available here as well. On Saturday morning (after checking out from the seminary guest rooms, if necessary), we will gather a few miles down the road at All Saints Orthodox Church, 205 Scarborough Street, Hartford, Connecticut for our Hierarchical Divine Liturgy, followed by breakfast and our final session. The theme of our assembly this year is, to put it bluntly, simply: “What are we doing and why?”

As I can't speak for anyone else, I'd like to offer an, admittedly, somewhat lengthy reply on behalf of All Saints:

The City of Hartford was founded in 1635 and is among the oldest cities in the United States. It is home to the nation's oldest public art museum (Wadsworth Athenaeum), oldest publicly funded park (Bushnell Park), and the oldest continuously published newspaper (Hartford Courant). When Mark Twain wrote in 1868, "Of all the beautiful towns it has been my fortune to see this is the chief," it was Hartford – his longtime home – that he had in mind. This is partly because Hartford was one of the richest cities in the United States for many years after the Civil War. However a lot has changed. Since the 1950s, the surrounding suburbs have grown—and even flourished in some cases—but Hartford itself has faced severe decline. Not only did Hartford's population drop 30% from 1950-2010, we lost department stores, insurance campuses, dozens of factories & along with them our status as the center of production for an array of products (from firearms to typewriters and bicycles to sewing machines)—to make no mention of our hockey team! Because of these changes, the demographics of Hartford have shifted dramatically.

In 1934 the Slavic community in Hartford centered around our small brick church (just down the block from the State Capital), was large enough and important enough to have the Governor of Connecticut in attendance at its 20th Anniversary Liturgy and banquet. Fast-forward to 2018 and the Russian community in Hartford is almost non-existent: just 0.48% of the population. Compare that with another statistic: almost half (40%) of Hartford's residents are Hispanic or Latino—and 77% of those residents are Puerto Rican. Today more than a third of Hartford residents hail from the island and Connecticut has the highest concentration of Puerto Ricans in the US.

In 2014, our parish of All Saints celebrated 100 years in Hartford and 50 years in the West End (having moved from downtown Broad Street in 1964). In the past 100 years, we've not only moved buildings; we changed jurisdictions a few times—we were not only once part of the Metropolia and ROCOR, we were, for a brief time, even part of the Soviet “Living Church” and our own pastor became one of its so-called-bishops! — to make no mention of the change of calendar, language, and name. While we are about to have our 45th “Russian Tea Room and Bazaar” open-house, we haven't been known as “The First Russian Orthodox Greek Catholic Church of All Saints, Inc.” since the 1990s.

We became simply “All Saints Orthodox Church” as (and with) a literal “sign” to say one didn't have to be Russian to find a home at All Saints. And though it took some time... people got the message.

The groundwork was all before my time; I moved to Hartford on June 6, 2013—the same day that Archpriest William DuBovik fell asleep in the Lord. Originally slotted to be his assistant while a resident at Hartford Hospital, I served the parish as a diocesan supply priest while attached to New Britain. After the summer ended, I met with the Archbishop to discuss the possibility of my serving as parish priest, if only temporarily, but when I told my wife she was rather wary about it. “Why?” I asked. She said, “It’s like there’s no life here; the church just feels... dead.”

Five years later, All Saints is very much alive! In the past five years we’ve welcomed 33 individuals into the Holy Orthodox Church through Baptism or Chrismation. A third of these (11) were adult or teenage converts; over a quarter of them (9) are African-American, Latino, or “multi-racial. In addition, as I write this letter, we have seven more individuals preparing for holy illumination! We’ve also celebrated 14 weddings in the past five years, including a couple from among those 33 converts; the bride—chrismated in 2014—was the first adult chrismated here in almost a decade, while the groom—baptized in 2015—was the first adult baptism at All Saints in over two decades; in 2017 they were the first black couple married in our parish. Compare this reality with the 30 funerals I’ve presided over since 2013: not surprisingly almost all were of Slavic ancestry & baptized in our parish decades ago, but sadly, in over half of these cases I couldn’t find a single parishioner who’d ever even heard their name.

Yet, it isn’t just the demographics of our parish that have kept pace with the changes in our city. Though once “The Richest City in the Union” and the “Chief of Beautiful Towns,” 150 years after Mark Twain waxed eloquently about our fair city, nearly half of Hartford’s children live in poverty; about a third of our residents fall below the poverty line. Because of this, Hartford has changed—and so has our parish. Our parishioners have, over the past five years focused more of their time, talents, and energy out into our city and our region than ever before; we’ve committed to caring for the poor and the needy, the homeless and orphaned, the immigrants and the refugees, and all those suffering in Central CT and beyond. The parishioners of All Saints have in just the past five years, raised over $50,000 for local and international charities; provided thousands of bagged lunches for the hungry/homeless through Loaves and Fishes, over a ton of canned food through Foodshare, and thousands of diapers for local newborns through St. Francis Hospital Pantry; and donated hundreds of toys for young patients at CT Children’s Hospital, hundreds of meals and Christmas gifts for Veterans & their families through the Chrysalis Center, and hundreds of coats to the poor and needy through Coats for Connecticut—not to mention dozens of times our parishioners took in homeless, helped settle and care for newly-arrived refugees, helped our neighbors make it to the end of the month, or opened the church for someone who needed to pray on a Thursday evening even though they weren’t Orthodox; we were the only church in town that set their hours to “open” 24/7.

What are we doing in Hartford? We, as a parish, have made a conscious and intentional decision to trust Christ and to strive to be the Church.

What does that mean? We are striving to serve Christ in Hartford & to serve Hartford in Christ. We are committed to going out of our way to welcome those who 50 (or 20...or even 10) years ago would have been turned away from many of our parishes. We’ve not just welcomed ‘them’ if they happened to show up on our doorstep—we’ve made it a priority to see all the people of Hartford as Háme: “our (people)”. Over the past five years we’ve honestly done a lot to seek out our people and to love our people, and to serve our people without any expectation that we’ll get anything back.

Why? Because we’ve finally begun to take seriously the words of the King who said: “inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me.” We still have a long way to go; there is still a lot we have left to do; and we don’t have it all figured out; there are so many poor, sick, suffering, lonely, depressed, addicted, and starving people in this city – it’s hard work.

Yet, we’ve come to realize, at the end of the day...”those people” are our people.

In Christ,

Fr. James Parnell
Pastor, All Saints Orthodox Church – Hartford, CT
